U.S.A.

vs.

JAMES T. RICHARDS

AUG 12 P UPATED motion TO DISCHARGE
U.S. DISTRICT COURTNEY CONRAD AS STANDBY
DISTRICT OF MASS.
COUNSEL

Now comes defendant and hereby requests that this Honorable Court remove Miriam Conrad of The Federal Defenders Office as his standby counsel for all the reasons he didn't want her as his primary attorney, for all the reasons listed in his recent "Ex Parte Motion to ~~RE~~ Discharge Attorney Conrad as Standby Counsel", and because defendant within the last two weeks sent Ms. Conrad a letter reporting to her that he was ~~RE~~ trying to organize among prisoners and their people on the outside a "Night of Broken Glass," which means he was reporting to Ms. Conrad evidence of an ongoing crime which she is obligated by her ethical rules, and by law, to report to law enforcement authorities, and for which she might later appear as a ~~RE~~ witness against defendant, which means she can no longer represent defendant.

Defendant hereby incorporates all previous motions, affidavits and exhibits regarding the discharge of Attorney Conrad as counsel and standby counsel, and the accompanying affidavits.

Respectfully submitted,

August 5, 2004

* Since he's not returned in more than 700,000 days, he's probably not coming, so the position belongs to the man who can claim the position, and fend off all contenders. I hardly claim the position. (Lasher's in for big trouble if I get this job.)
